WORK & LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Carbon Five | Software Engineering Intern   06/2015 – 08/2015
- Part of a small team of developers and designers building an iOS and web app for a FinTech startup called Dobot.
- Used Swift, Ruby, Rails and HTML/CSS. The app retrieves user's bank account transactions to determine how much money can be withdrawn monthly for investment.
- Created a ruby gem ("transaction_faker") to mimick real user's bank transactions to test our withdrawal algorithm.

CODE2040 Fellows Program | 2015 Fellow   06/2015 – 08/2015
- One of the 37 fellows selected from a pool of 400+ Hispanic/Latino and Black applicants.
- Workshops on entrepreneurship and tech topics; speaker series with founders, CEOs, VCs, and engineers.
- Interaction and networking with industry members and fellowship alumni.

iOS Developer | Independent – "Football Master"   06/2012 – 08/2014
- Designed and developed a soccer trivia app in Objective-C. Currently has over 8,300 downloads in 80+ countries.
- Trivia has 13 levels, special unlocks, limited "lives", and correct answer streak bonuses.
- Uses iAd network to display ads, Game Center for a global leaderboard and achievements. Created iOS 7 interface using Adobe Fireworks and Photoshop (App Store: http://www.is.gd/FootballMaster).

US-MEX FOCUS | Public Relations Team   05/2014 – Present
- Organizing student conference that fosters collaboration between USA and Mexico.
- In charge of bringing keynote and panel speakers for this year's themes: energy, immigration, & social activism.

Stanford Blyth Fund | Equity Analyst   10/2014 – 04/2015
- Market analyst for the Media and Telecommunications group in the Blyth Fund, where we perform technical analyses on companies' stocks and pitch them as investment options for the $175,000 the club invests annually.

International Monterrey Model United Nations Simulation   08/2012– 06/2014
Secretary General (2014) and Hospitality Dept. (2012-2013)
- Led the 5 departments of the Secretariat on the planning and execution of the 2014 MUN simulation.
- Hosted over 350 delegates and handled more than $350,000 MXN in costs; fundraised over $160,000 MXN.
- Contributed in the creation of our new website; invited NIAC founder Trita Parsi as guest speaker.
